

GETTING TO KNOW OUR PARISH FAMILY

George & Geri Weinhandl

The Weinhandl family have been members of the St. Mathias Parish since 2003. Geri (Geraldine Endres) and George Weinhandl were married in Hampton in 1985.

Geri is the daughter of Jay (Julius) and Gert Endres. (Deceased) She grew up on the Endres family farm, just south of Hampton, and like her brothers and sisters, attended the St. Mathias Catholic School.

George is the son of George (deceased) and Erna Weinhandl. He was born in Austria, moved to Canada, and then came to St. Paul with his family. Eventually, his parents purchased land and built a home south of Hampton.

George worked as a government contractor on different projects and after they were married they lived in New York, Baltimore and Chicago. In 1990 they headed west to settle in Eagan and joined the St. Thomas Beckett Parish. They lived in Eagan for thirteen years before moving back to the Hampton area in 2003.

They have four children; twins, Mike and Maria, Joseph and Robert. All are currently working full time jobs, mostly here in the Twin Cities area.

George now works for Xcel Energy and Geri works at Greg's Meats. They also have an apple orchard that keeps them and their entire family busy during the harvest season.

The Weinhandl's are greeters before Mass and working around the apple orchard schedule, Geri still finds time to come to Eucharist Adoration on Tuesdays. She also helps clean church and works at the funeral luncheons.
